European Intellectual History
Tenure-track Assistant Professor
To begin Fall, 2007

The history department of the University of Missouri-Columbia, flagship campus of the University of Missouri, and a Carnegie Research Intensive university, invites applications for a tenure-track assistant professor in nineteenth and twentieth century European intellectual and cultural history. Preference will be given to applicants specializing in France or East Central Europe. A strong research program and an ability to teach graduate and undergraduate courses in the topic are required, while a Ph.D. in hand by start of appointment is expected. The successful applicant will have a teaching load of two three-credit courses per semester. Please submit a letter of application describing research and teaching interests, a c.v., and three letters of recommendation to: European Intellectual Search Committee, Department of History, 101 Read Hall, University of Missouri, Columbia MO 65211. The deadline for applications is October 10, 2006. The University of Missouri is an Equal Opportunity–Affirmative Action Employer.
