Tenure-track Assistant Professor
To begin Fall, 2007

Search reopened. The history department of the University of Missouri-Columbia, flagship campus of the University of Missouri system and a Carnegie Research Extensive university, invites applications for a tenure-track assistant professor in South Asian or Southeast Asian history to begin in fall 2007. A strong research program and ability to teach graduate and undergraduate courses in South Asian or Southeast Asian history are required, while a Ph.D. in hand by the start of the appointment is expected. The teaching load is two three-credit courses per semester. The successful applicant should expect to teach a one or two semester survey course on the history of India on a regular basis. Please submit a letter of application describing research and teaching interests, a c.v., and three letters of recommendation to: South/Southeast Asian Search Committee, Department of History, 101 Read Hall, University of Missouri, Columbia MO 65211. The deadline for applications is October 10, 2006. The University of Missouri is an Equal Opportunity—Affirmative Action Employer.
