The Department of History at Auburn University invites applications for the position of assistant professor, tenure-track, in the field of Early Modern Britain. Appointment to begin August 16, 2007. The appointee must have the Ph.D. in history by the time of appointment. The department is particularly interested in individuals whose research is in the seventeenth or eighteenth centuries. Teaching responsibilities will include graduate seminars in areas of specialization, undergraduate courses, and courses in the core curriculum. Review of applications to begin October 1, 2006. Search to continue until the position is filled. Please send a letter of application, vita, transcripts, evidence of teaching effectiveness, brief statement of teaching philosophy, writing sample, and three letters of recommendation to the address below.

Women and Minorities are Encouraged to Apply

Minimum Qualifications: Ph.D. in History

Application Procedure: Review of applications will begin on October 1, 2006, and continue until the position is filled.

Prof. Donna Bohanan, Chair
Early Modern Britain Search Committee
Department of History
310 Thach Hall
Auburn University
Auburn, AL 36849-5207
Phone: 334-844-6631
Email: bohanan@auburn.edu

The candidate selected for this position must be able to meet eligibility requirements to work in the United States at the time the appointment is scheduled to begin and must be able to communicate effectively in English. Auburn University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer and actively seeks applications from qualified minorities and women.

Website: http://www.clas.auburn.edu/history/