ROMEO AND JULIET IN YIDDISH
Screening and Discussion with the Director
Eve Annenberg

Wednesday, April 3, 2013, at 7:00 pm
Fong Auditorium, Boylston Hall, Room 110
Harvard Yard, Harvard University, Cambridge MA

“Romeo and Juliet in Yiddish is a gritty, funny drama about charming Satmar Hasid bad boys who encounter Shakespeare’s Romeo and Juliet when they help a middle aged New York City emergency room nurse/Yiddish scholar with translation of the play.”

Sponsored by The Center for Jewish Studies at Harvard University, the Yiddish Club at Harvard, Harvard Hillel, and the Yiddish Book Center with support from the Jack & Ruth B. Cowl Center for Jewish Cultures

Center for Jewish Studies
Harvard University
6 Divinity Ave.
Cambridge, MA 02138

617-495-4326
cjs@fas.harvard.edu
www.fas.harvard.edu/~cjs
facebook.com/CenterforJewishStudies

Abraham and Rachel Bornstein Fund