Announcement

• Friday, 3/18, 4-5:30, Robinson Hall, Lower Library

• Marcia Yonemoto (Univ. of Colorado)

• “Engendering Proper Behavior in Late 17th Century Japan”
Another announcement:
The Big Green Guy celebrates St. Patrick’s Day in Tokyo
Godzilla

Thursday, March 17
7-9:30 pm
Auditorium of Harvard-Yenching Library
2 Divinity Avenue
Hiroshima
American hydrogen bomb testing

Bikini Atoll in the central Pacific (Marshall Islands)

March 1, 1954

Japanese fishing boat, the Lucky Dragon No. 5 (Dai-go Fukuryu-maru)
Fallout

- Lucky Dragon returns to port on March 14, 1954, unloads tuna
- Japanese newspaper (Yomiuri) picks up story of 23 crew members being treated for radiation sickness (one crew member died in September)
- tuna checked for radiation
- national panic
Hot Tuna?