Target Paragraph: Aggressive Condition

Donna (Donald) and I have known one another for a long time and last week we saw each other for the first time in awhile. We met at her (his) favorite cafe on Chapel Street. After we got some coffee, Donna (Donald) noticed that her (his) mug was dirty and asked the waitress for a new one. We talked about the usual - our jobs, relationships, and the past. I talked about my new job, and how much I enjoyed the autonomy and freedom. Donna (Donald) said she (he) liked her (his) job because she (he) enjoyed the challenge of being responsible for her (his) department's decisions. I mentioned that I hadn't been getting much exercise and so I had recently started running. Donna (Donald) said that she (he) had got her (his) neighbor to play racquetball, so that's what she (he) did for exercise. After breakfast she (he) suggested that we go to the mall. Donna (Donald) wanted to take her (his) car, so we left mine at the cafe. As we drove to the mall we talked about how much the town had changed in the last few years. I said I liked the changes, but Donna (Donald) said that there was too much gentrification and something should be done about it.

At the mall we decided to go to Macy's where they were having a one-day sale on outdoor furniture. Donna (Donald) said that we should hurry so that we wouldn't miss the best items. Donna (Donald) thought she (he) would get some furniture for herself (himself) and her (his) boy (girl) friend, Steve (Sally). She (he) tried to reach him (her), but he (she) was not in. When she (he) found a set she (he) liked, she (he) decided to buy it anyway. Since she (he) didn't have enough cash, Donna (Donald) suggested that she (he) put it on my card and pay me later. I needed some furniture too, so I ended up buying a nice redwood table and chairs for my backyard.

As we walked away from Macy's, Donna (Donald) mentioned that she (he) was about to move to a new apartment. She (he) said the old lady who was renting it had no idea what the rent should be. Donna (Donald) said that since the place seemed to be worth only $550, she (he) didn't think it made sense to pay the $600 the woman was asking. Since it was getting overcast, Donna (Donald) suggested that we see a movie and invite Steve (Sally). When she (he) finally got a hold of Steve (Sally), though, he (she) insisted that she (he) go shopping with him (her). Donna (Donald) told Steve (Sally) that she (he) would rather go to the movies, so that's what we did. After the movie, Donna (Donald) dropped me off at my car and said to call her (him) soon.

Target Paragraph: Dependence Condition

Donna (Donald) and I have known one another for a long time and last week we saw each other for the first time in awhile. We met at my favorite cafe on Chapel Street. I ordered only coffee, and so did she (he). We talked about the usual - our jobs, relationships, and the past. I talked about my new job, and how much I enjoyed the autonomy and freedom. She (He) said she (he) liked her (his) job because there wasn't too much pressure and she (he) didn't always have to make the final decision. I mentioned that I hadn't been getting the much exercise and so I had recently started running. Donna (Donald) said that since her (his) neighbor liked racquetball that's what she (he) did for exercise. After breakfast I suggested that we go to the mall. Donna (Donald) doesn't have a car, so we took mine. As we drove to the mall, we talked about how much the town had changed in the last few years. Donna (Donald) got a hold of Steve (Sally) and told him (her) that we were thinking about going to the movies. Steve (Sally), however, insisted that she (he) go shopping with him (her). As I dropped Donna (Donald) off at Steve's (Sally's) house, she (he) said she (he) hoped that we would see each other soon.
